

Joseph Burkhardt, DO
Orthopaedic Surgery

Joseph Burkhardt, DO - Orthopedic surgeon is affiliated with the practice of practice of Great Lakes Bone & Joint Center.

Dr. Burkhardt received his medical degree from the Kansas City University of Medicine and Biosciences College of Osteopathic Medicine. He completed his Osteopathic Rotating Internship and Orthopaedic Surgery Residency from Michigan State University at the Garden City Hospital Campus. Pediatric Orthopaedic Rotation through Children's Hospital of New Orleans, LO.

He was awarded a fellowship in reconstruction 'Sports and Joint Replacement' at the University of Southern Florida through the Florida Knee and Orthopaedic Centers, St. Petersburg, FL.

Dr. Burkhardt has published numerous articles and lectures nationally on the subject of orthopaedic injury, cartilage damage and arthritis.

He is a member of the American Orthopaedic Association, American Orthopaedic Academy of Orthopaedics, and Michigan Orthopaedic Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons.

Dr. Burkhardt is board certified in orthopaedic surgery by the American Osteopathic Board of Orthopaedic Surgery.

Joseph Burkhardt, DO
Great Lakes Bone & Joint Center
2 Heritage Oak Lane
Battle Creek, MI 49015
p. (269) 979-6360
www.greatlakesboneandjoint.com